Code of Conduct

NYSSRA members are expected to conduct themselves in a sportsmanlike manner befitting worthy representatives of their families, ski areas and in conformity with the best traditions of Alpine Ski Racing in New York State.

Section 1: All NYSSRA members, including athletes, coaches, officials and volunteers shall be subject to the jurisdiction of and shall abide by the International Ski Competition Rules (the "ICR"), U.S. Skiing Constitution, bylaws, rules and regulations and NYSSRA Articles of Incorporation, bylaws, rules and regulations (the "Competition Rules").

Section 2: While in competitions, going to and from competitions and while at ski areas hosting competitions, NYSSRA members shall:

1. Maintain high standards of moral and ethical conduct including self-control, responsible behavior, consideration for others' physical and emotional well-being, restraint from profane and abusive language, and courtesy and good manners in public places and while traveling;
2. Abstain from the illegal use of drugs and alcohol;
3. While at NYSSRA sponsored camps, adhere to all rules;
4. Adhere to and be knowledgeable of all Competition Rules.

NYSSRA has a no tolerance policy for the above items.

Section 3: Failure to comply with any of the above can lead to disciplinary action against NYSSRA members by: 1) The NYSSRA program director with the advise and consent of the NYSSRA Executive Committee; 2) the Race Jury on the recommendation of a member of the Jury 3) the Technical Delegate; or 4) the designated State Team leader.

Section 4: Disciplinary action taken can include, but is not limited to:

1. Any disciplinary measure allowed by the Competition Rules
2. Disqualify from a specific race and/or suspension from future races.
3. Withdrawal of future NYSSRA Camp invitations.

All disciplinary action is to be reported to NYSSRA, c/o Program Director.

Any disciplinary action taken shall be applied fairly and equitably to all parties involved. Any disciplinary action that would prevent a NYSSRA member from participating in competition for a period greater than 21 days will be conducted in accord with the Due Process procedures set forth by U.S. Skiing, and held before the NYSSRA Review Committee.
